

Please do not change the regulations to allow further media ownership consolidation. Allowing the media to be dominated by powerful corporations instead of small, community based families will mean that everyone gets their news from the same sources, and we miss out on minority voices and local news. This will degrade the fabric of democracy in our country.

At the very least please postpone the vote on this issue to allow further public involvement in the process.

Elaine H. Bachrach